Litigation Over Estate of Late David McCormack

(Special Despatch to The Globe)

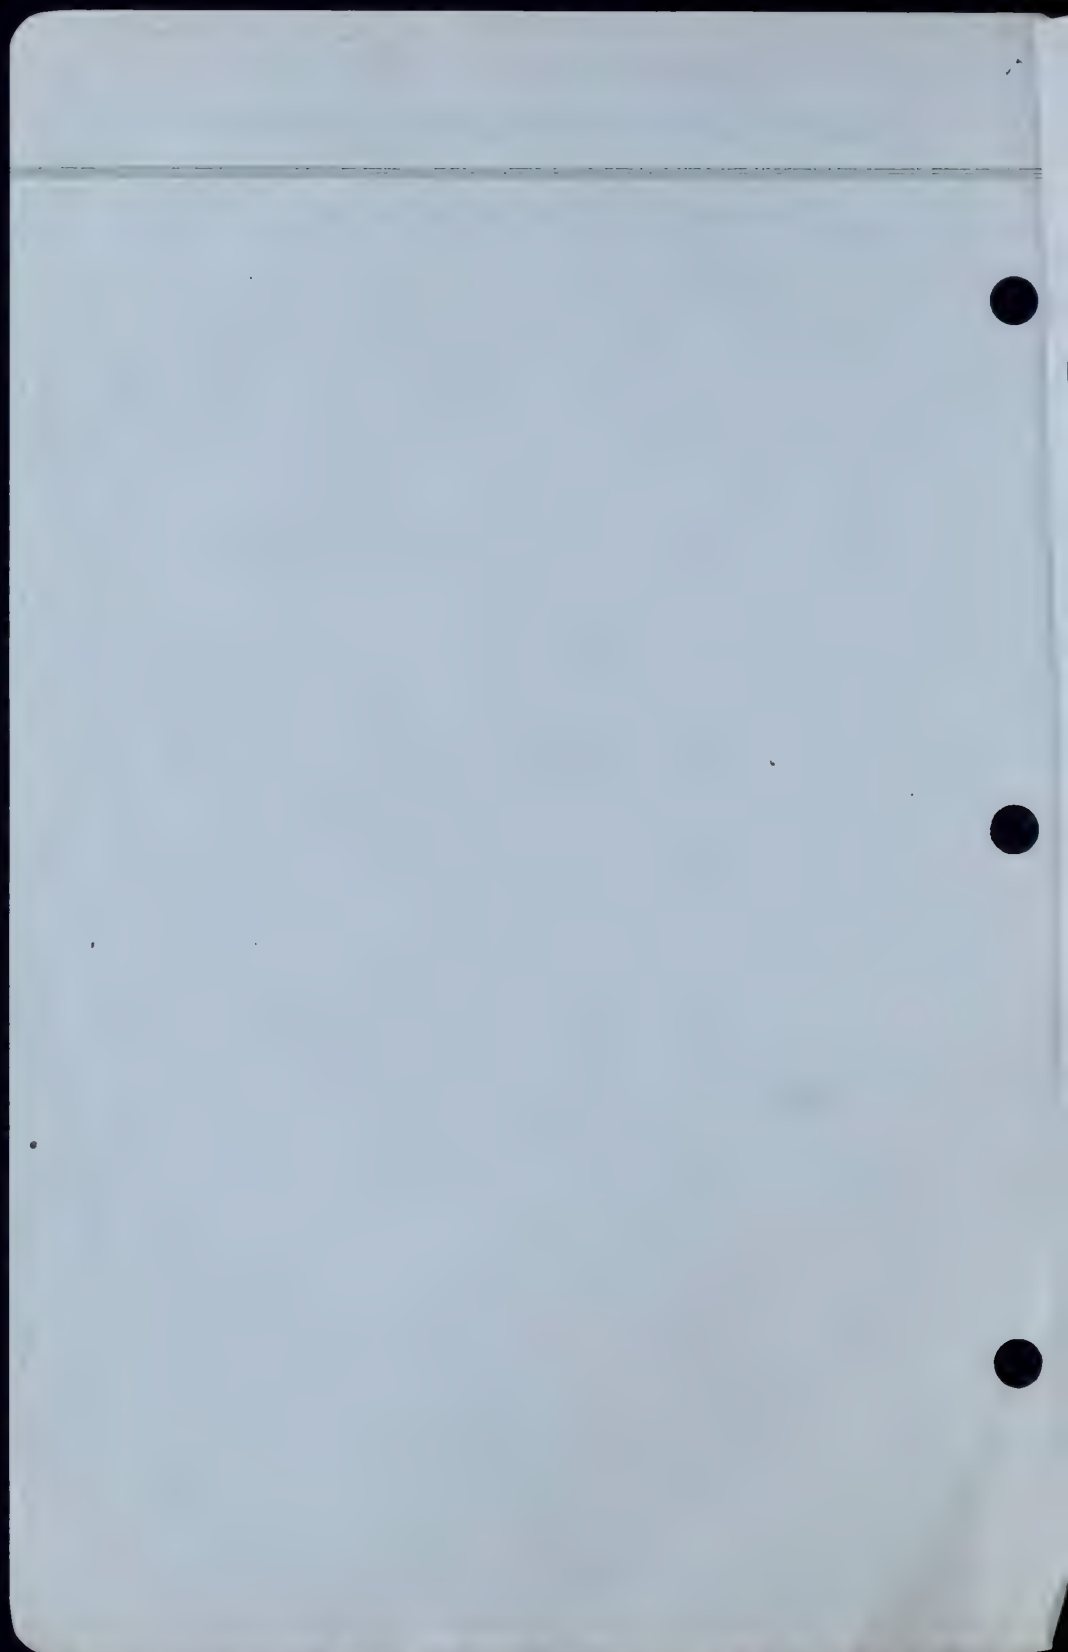

Buffalo, Dec 20 (1906) - A big fight is on in the Surrogate Court here relative to the appointment of an administrator of the estate of the late David McCormack, who has a brother and sister living at Amherst Island, Ont., and scores of nephews and nieces elsewhere in Canada.

McCormack died at Providence Retreat here Dec. 7th, where he had been for over a year as an incompetent. He was a well-known Buffalo lake captain and amassed considerable property. Shortly before he was taken to Providence Retreat he and his wife were found subsisting on potato peelings and very mean fare, although they had plenty of money in a local bank.

W. J. McCormack left on Thursday last for St. John's N.B. where he will sail on the SS Corsican on Saturday for his old home for Ireland.

McCormack came from Ballyhalbert
North Ireland (San Reed)

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

You have been referred to me by Mr. Clarence Hogeboom, Kingston, in my search for an expert on the genealogical history of Amherst Island. I am hoping that you may be able to supply me with some research leads regarding the M^cCORMICK and BEAUBIEN families of the Island. I do not know the religious affiliation of either family.

My husband's grandmother, Annie Maudie M^cCormick, was born August 30, 1889, on Amherst Island. Her father was John M^cCormick and her mother was Margaret Beaubien.

I do not know any of Annie's brothers or sisters. She married James Mitchell Howie, probably in Napanee or Kingston. She lived in or around Napanee until her death Oct. 31, 1970. She is buried in the Napanee cemetery.

The children of Annie and James Howie include Ethel Broderick (Sault Ste Marie), Eleanor Smithies (Kingston, deceased), James, Grace Mallory (Kingston), Gertrude Peters (Kingston), John, Lawrence, Helen Walt (Belleville).

Unfortunately, this is all the information I have been able to locate, as the living descendants do not know anything of their forefathers. I must apologize for this lack of background information. However, on this small basis, would it be possible for you to shed any further light on these families and their origins; or any books, manuscripts, documents, libraries, or people who might be able to assist me?

I will be returning to Kingston for a short time in March. Perhaps I could give you a call at that time if you feel you have information that is too voluminous to put in writing.

Your attention to my problem is greatly appreciated. I genuinely look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Edie M. Smithies
